North Cotswold Brewery Shagweaver 4.5% abv

Established in 1999, North Cotswold Brewery is a great family-run craft brewery situated on the Fosseway a few miles outside Moreton in Marsh. Yes, it really is called Shagweaver but the brewery is located a few miles from Shipston on Stour a historic wool market town. “Shag” is an old English word meaning a heavy or rough woollen fabric. So Shagweaver literally means “wool weaver”. A pale hoppy bitter brewed with a blend of three New Zealand hops. This is a really popular craft beer which appeals to both ale and lager drinkers alike.

Brand Brewery Pilsener 5.0% abv

Based near Maastricht, Brand is the oldest brewery in Holland – incredibly they've been brewing since 1340. We discovered Brand Premium Pilsener on a tasting tour of the Netherlands – on bikes of course!

It's brewed with more hops – added twice during the brewing process - which gives it the unique, powerful taste. The completely malted lager beer is characterised by the perfect balance between hop bitterness and hops aroma.

P.S. Brand Pilsener is vegan-friendly.

Boat Lane Brewery Single Step 5.6%abv

Based in Offenham, Worcestershire, Boat Lane Brewery is a hidden gem, preferring to spend their time tinkering with the brewing process rather than that boring marketing stuff. However we tracked them down and are thrilled to be bringing you some of their finest beer!

Single Step is a fine example of an IPA. It has a strong hoppy character and leaves a nice clean finish. At 5.6% this elegant ale goes down a treat.
