

Stroud Brewery Budding

Twice Champion Beer of Gloucestershire!
4.5% pale ale with a grassy bitterness, sweet malt and luscious floral aroma. Fuggles used as the main bittering hop – then late hopped for a luscious floral aroma.

Named in celebration of Edwin Budding (1796–1846) of Thrupp, Stroud, who invented the lawnmower in 1830. Budding was an engineer servicing the abundant wool mills of the Stroud valleys and he took his inspiration from a machine with a helical blade that cut the nap (fluff) off the newly woven cloth. Another great British invention. Please join us in a toast: “To Edwin”.

Hillside Brewery Pinnacle

Founded in 2014, Hillside are based near Longhope in the Forest of Dean and are already building a reputation for award-winning beers.

This 3.8% pale ale is a great session beer for any occasion, with a crisp and zesty finish. “Highly Commended” in the Taste Of The West Awards.

The Cotswold Brewing Company IPA

Based in the classic English village of Bourton-on-the-Water, the brewers at Cotswold Brewery are inspired by the great brewer legends of Bavaria, evolving German and Czech brewing techniques to create traditional-meets-modern, full-bodied lager.

This beer is an American-style 5.2% IPA, brewed with US hops and English malt, then lagered for four weeks to give a full-bodied flavour balanced against a distinctive hoppiness. Looks like liquid gold, tastes like hoppy greatness.

Dommelsch Pilsner

We came across this fine 5.0% pilsner on a tasting expedition in Holland – on bikes of course! They've been brewing this beer in the small town of Dommelen, on the banks of the river Dommel, since 1744 and we brought back a few cases for our members to try. Smooth, refreshing and extremely more-ish this is a fine example of a great Dutch lager.

Hillside Brewery Legend of Hillside

A superbly, traditional English 4.7% IPA with a subtle honey flavour balanced with earthy, spicy and orange hop flavours. Another award-winning beer from the Hillside Brewery: the hugely prestigious Beer Of The Year Silver from CAMRA (Campaign for Real Ale) – you really must try this one!

Gloucester Brewery Gloucester Gold

Brewing in the traditional warehouse location of Gloucester Docks since 2011, this brewery has won a string of awards. Not least their aptly named Gloucester Gold (their longest-running, bestselling beer) which won a Gold Award in the Wales and West category of SIBA (Society of Independent Brewers), before progressing to the Silver Award in the national competition. A crisp and fruity golden ale with a luscious tropical fruit aroma.
