

Howling Hops Flipside 5.2% abv

Howling Hops have been passionate about good beer for many years. Initially drinking it, then selling it at the Southampton Arms and eventually onto brewing it. In 2011, they reopened the Cock Tavern on Mare street as Hackney's first brewpub. They brewed over 100 different beers in the 'brew cave' over the course of 2 years, never brewing the same beer twice. They needed to expand again over in Hackney Wick and that's where they are today.

Howling Hops brew bold, modern, uncompromised, flavoursome, generously hopped beers. All their beers are unfiltered, unpasteurised and suitable for vegans.

Flipside is a DDH Pale Ale hopped with Nelson, Amarillo and Citra. Tangy white grape notes offset the sharp citrus and sweet peach flavours in this extra pale, extra balanced hazy crusher.

Box Steam Brewery Pony Truck 3.8% abv

A pony truck on a steam locomotive is an axle with two unpowered wheels designed to help negotiate curves on the line.

This Pony Truck has nothing to do with axles, wheels or negotiating curves – but it sounds good and suits this super hoppy pale ale. Brewed with Wai-iti and First Gold hops, Pony Truck is refreshing and juicy, with a truckload of ripe peach flavours.
