

Gorgeous Brewery Geekhunter 4.2% abv

Gorgeous Brewery is an independent, family run craft brewery in the heart of Highgate, London. Founded by brother sister duo, Rob and Sam Laub the brewery is focused on creating an eclectic, deliciously drinkable range with an emphasis on handcrafted quality.

The brewery works with little automation, so a whole lot of care and hard work goes into every brew. All beers, apart from the real ales, are unfiltered and unfiltered, which means they are vegan, retain a natural haze and even more flavour.

Geekhunter is a Light bodied and hoppy extra pale ale with Notes of grapefruit and stone fruit.

Quantock Brewery Titanium 5.1% abv

Quantock Brewery was set up in December 2007 in Wellington, Somerset. However, it was born out of the love of brewing by head brewer Rob Rainey. Rob purchased his first home brew kit from Boots but when this didn't produce the quality of beer he wanted, Rob, a former nuclear engineer, built his own kit from scratch, and the rest is history.

Titanium is a West Coast IPA style beer, bursting with tropical hop flavours.

Howling Hops Bass Strait 3.8% abv

Howling Hops have been passionate about good beer for many years. Initially drinking it, then selling it at the Southampton Arms and eventually onto brewing it. In 2011, they reopened the Cock Tavern on Mare street as Hackney's first brewpub. They brewed over 100 different beers in the 'brew cave' over the course of 2 years, never brewing the same beer twice. They needed to expand again over in Hackney Wick and that's where they are today.

Howling Hops brew bold, modern, uncompromised, flavoursome, generously hopped beers. All their beers are unfiltered, unpasteurised and suitable for vegans.

Bass Strait is a New World Helles Lager, where the addition of Motueka hops from New Zealand add a gentle, floral fruitiness to the classically breadly Helles texture and crisp finish.

No Heroes Ottercan 4.7% abv

No Heroes is a social brewery founded by a small team who want to make a lasting difference to our planet and our life - that's why they are committing to plant a tree every time they make a sale with the great guys at one tree planted.

Ottercan is No Heroes take on the New England style. It is a light and easy drinking pale ale with that New England bite. Amarillo, Citra, El Dorado, Mosaic and Simcoe hops give it a nice fruity tang with a gentle bitter bite, just how we like it.

Vegan Friendly

Friday Beer Pinnacle 5.2% abv

Friday Beer was started by three expert material scientists made redundant in the recession. From the back-rooms and sheds of their homes, they had the idea to brew real ale in the heart of the Malvern Hills using local and British ingredients to produce fine flavours. Three years later, in 2014, the company had grown and developed, recently moving into a second, larger brewery. As true real ale enthusiasts, their mission is to provide you with high quality, interesting beers.

Based on a traditional British bitter, Pinnacle combines a variety of hops with grain to produce first class ale but a touch of Rye gives it a taste like no other. This beer will surprise and delight your taste buds and not just on a Friday.

West Berkshire Brewery Renegade 4.5% abv

West Berkshire Brewery started with an attitude that combined a passion for beer, a respect for the local community and a disregard for convention. Since 1995 they've been consistently dedicated to quality, taking pride in everything they do and striving to build a sustainable future.

Brewed using 100% British ingredients, Renegade is a pilsner-style lager is crisp, clean and utterly refreshing.
